

Word Problems: Large Numbers

Solve the problems using addition and subtraction

Mrs. Miller has a mansion worth $505,985 and a car worth $64,574. What is the total value of Mrs. Miller's properties?

Last year 1,753,857,676 telephones were sold all over the world. This year 1,877,824,758 were sold. How many telephones were sold in the last two years?

4 years ago, 7,300,191,867 trees were planted by an organization in 170 countries. This year 235,831,619 more trees were planted. How many trees were planted by the organization this year?

Mrs. Miller has a mansion worth $851,031 and a car worth $39,490. What is the total value of Mrs. Miller's properties?

Last year 1,624,277,631 telephones were sold all over the world. This year 2,261,698,632 were sold. How many telephones were sold in the last two years?

4 years ago, 7,413,582,486 trees were planted by an organization in 170 countries. This year 2,155,064,629 more trees were planted. How many trees were planted by the organization this year?