

Word Problems: Adding and Subtracting

Solve the problems using addition and subtraction

Ryan is having a party for his birthday. 65 guests leave. 34 guests are still at the party. How many guests in total were at the party?

Write your answer here

Abigail bought 65 red balloons and 33 yellow balloons for her birthday party. How many balloons does Abigail have?

Write your answer here

Ryan is having a party for his birthday. 42 guests leave. 40 guests are still at the party. How many guests in total were at the party?

Write your answer here

Abigail bought 63 red balloons and 32 yellow balloons for her birthday party. How many balloons does Abigail have?

Write your answer here

Paul has $50 in his wallet. He finds $36 in his piggy bank. How much money does Paul have?

Write your answer here

Paul has $30 in his wallet. He finds $41 in his piggy bank. How much money does Paul have?

Write your answer here