

Understanding division

Write out the division problems and find their answers

Matthieu has 8 marbles in his drawer. He has to equally divide them into the 2 bags of marbles.. How many marbles does he have to place in each bag?

$$\square \div \square = \square$$

The mother of Laura bought 2 apples at the market which she put into 6 baskets, carefully distributing the same number into each. How many apples did she put in each basket?

$$\square \div \square = \square$$

The father of Julie has 4 hives in her garden into which the 8 bees have been distributed. With the same number of bees in each hive, how many bees are in each one?

$$\square \div \square = \square$$

The mother of Benjamin bought 3 apples at the market which she put into 9 baskets, carefully distributing the same number into each. How many apples did she put in each basket?

$$\square \div \square = \square$$

The father of Charlotte has 4 hives in her garden into which the 12 bees have been distributed. With the same number of bees in each hive, how many bees are in each one?

$$\square \div \square = \square$$

The father of Julie has 3 hives in her garden into which the 12 bees have been distributed. With the same number of bees in each hive, how many bees are in each one?

$$\square \div \square = \square$$