Word Problems: Multiplying and Dividing
Solve the problems using multiplication and division

A florist uses 110 roses. She makes bouquets with 11 roses for a party and places 2 bouquets on each table. How many tables can she decorate with bouquets?

Write your answer here

Megan gives the same number of photos to 3 different people. She took 25 photos during a party with friends and she made 3 copies of each photo. How many photos does each person have if they each have the same number of photos?

Write your answer here

Megan gives the same number of photos to 2 different people. She took 17 photos during a party with friends and she made 6 copies of each photo. How many photos does each person have if they each have the same number of photos?

Write your answer here

Joanna sold some clothes online. She had 3 pieces of clothing and sold them for $3 each. She shared the amount she earned between 5 charities. She gave the same amount to each charity. How much did she give each charity in the end?

Write your answer here

Joanna sold some clothes online. She had 9 pieces of clothing and sold them for $10 each. She shared the amount she earned between 5 charities. She gave the same amount to each charity. How much did she give each charity in the end?

Write your answer here

A florist uses 120 roses. She makes bouquets with 12 roses for a party and places 5 bouquets on each table. How many tables can she decorate with bouquets?

Write your answer here