

Word Problems: Large Numbers

Solve the problems using addition and subtraction

11,000,000 emails are sent every day. 9,000,000 of them are junk mail. How many messages are not junk mail?

This year there has been 970,000 earthquakes in the world. That's 220,000 more than last year. How many earthquakes were there last year?

In 1950, the Earth's population was approximately 2,400,000,000. Now the world population is 7,000,000,000. By how much has the world's population increased between 1950 and now?

6,000,000 emails are sent every day. 5,000,000 of them are junk mail. How many messages are not junk mail?

This year there has been 750,000 earthquakes in the world. That's 230,000 more than last year. How many earthquakes were there last year?

In 1950, the Earth's population was approximately 2,300,000,000. Now the world population is 6,800,000,000. By how much has the world's population increased between 1950 and now?